

2022 CEJA Voter Guide

Grassroots People Power: Our Voice, Our Vote

November 8, 2022 is a key opportunity for Californians to vote to protect and invest in low-income communities of color. With a rapidly changing legislature, we can lead by passing progressive measures that will bring public and reproductive health protections and school funding to all Californians. This year, we will unite our voices and our votes for healthy neighborhoods and our environmental justice communities.

On November 8th, vote in one of three ways:

Complete, sign and send your mail ballot, with postage prepaid, as soon as possible

Complete, sign and return your mail ballot at a dropbox near you

Vote in-person at your nearest polling place

YES on Proposition 1: Right to Reproductive Freedom

A yes vote will protect the human right to abortion and access to medical care, health education and contraceptives

YES on Proposition 29: Dialysis Clinic Requirements

A yes vote requires dialysis clinics to have on-site medical professionals; for a physician to report 5% or greater ownership of the clinic; to report dialysis-related infection to the state; requires state approval to close or limit services; and prohibits patient discrimination due payment method

NEUTRAL on Proposition 26: Legalize Sports Betting at Tribe-Owned Casinos and Racetracks

Legalizes sports betting in person at tribe-owned casinos and licensed racetracks in California for persons 21 and older

NEUTRAL on Proposition 30: Clean Car and Clean Air Act

Increase taxes on California's millionaires by less than 2% to go towards zero-emission cars and electric car charging stations in low-income communities, and to prevent and fight wildfires

NO on Proposition 27: Legalize Sports Betting and Prevent Homelessness

A no vote prevents legalization of online and mobile phone sports betting for persons 21 and older, and therefore not tax those profits 10% for homelessness programs and tribal development

YES on Proposition 31: Ban on Sale of Flavored Tobacco Products

A yes vote upholds California law to ban the sale of flavored tobacco products

YES on Proposition 28: Funding for Public Arts and Music Education

A yes vote increases at least $800 million for arts and music programs for public school students

Voter support:

www.sos.ca.gov/elections/cavoter

1-800-232-VOTE (8683) (English)

1-800-232-VOTA (8682) (Spanish)

1-888-API-VOTE (274-8683) (Asian Languages)

Today!
Check your voter status at
<https://voterstatus.sos.ca.gov/>

October 10th:
Ballot and election information arrives by mail to your registered address! Register online today:
<https://registertovote.ca.gov/>

October 24th:
Last day to register to vote online
<https://registertovote.ca.gov/>

November 8th:
Election Day! All polling locations are open 7:00AM - 8:00PM. You can register to vote and vote the same day!